PAST CONTINUOUS: VISUAL TREE

Aksi yang SEDANG berlangsung pada titik waktu tertentu di MASA LALU

1. ACTIVE VERBAL SENTENCE

Fokus ke pelaku aksi yang sedang terjadi di masa lampau (was/were + V-ing).

Subjek: I, He, She, It (was)

+ Positive

`S + was + V-ing`

I was studying English at 8 p.m.

He was sleeping.

- Negative

`S + was not + V-ing`

I wasn't studying English.

He wasn't sleeping.

? Question

`Was + S + V-ing?`

Was I studying English?

Was he sleeping?

Subjek: You, We, They (were)

+ Positive

`S + were + V-ing`

They were playing football.

We were watching TV.

- Negative

`S + were not + V-ing`

They weren't playing football.

We weren't watching TV.

? Question

`Were + S + V-ing?`

Were they playing football?

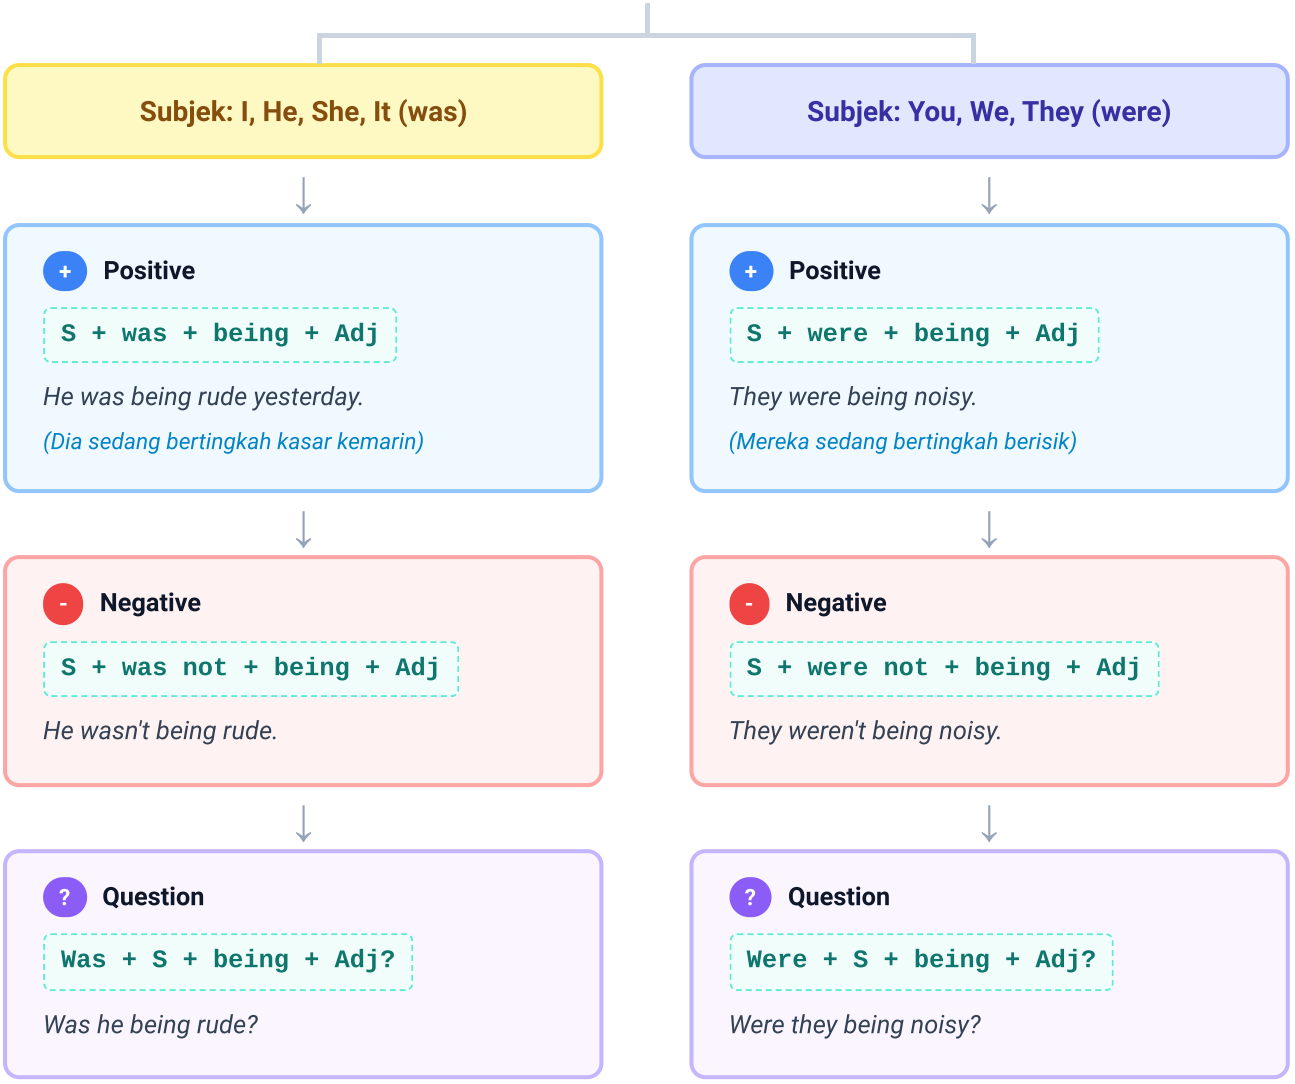

Were we watching TV?

Kunci Otomatis (Double Lock):

Tidak peduli bentuk kalimatnya (+, -, atau ?), Anda MUTLAK harus menggunakan pasangan To Be masa lalu (was/were) dan kata kerja berakhiran -ing. Tidak ada did, dan tidak ada V1 murni di tense ini!

2. NOMINAL SENTENCE (Temporary Behavior)

Fokus ke "Keadaan/Perilaku Sementara" di masa lalu. Stative Verb umumnya tidak bisa di-ing-kan, KECUALI untuk perilaku!

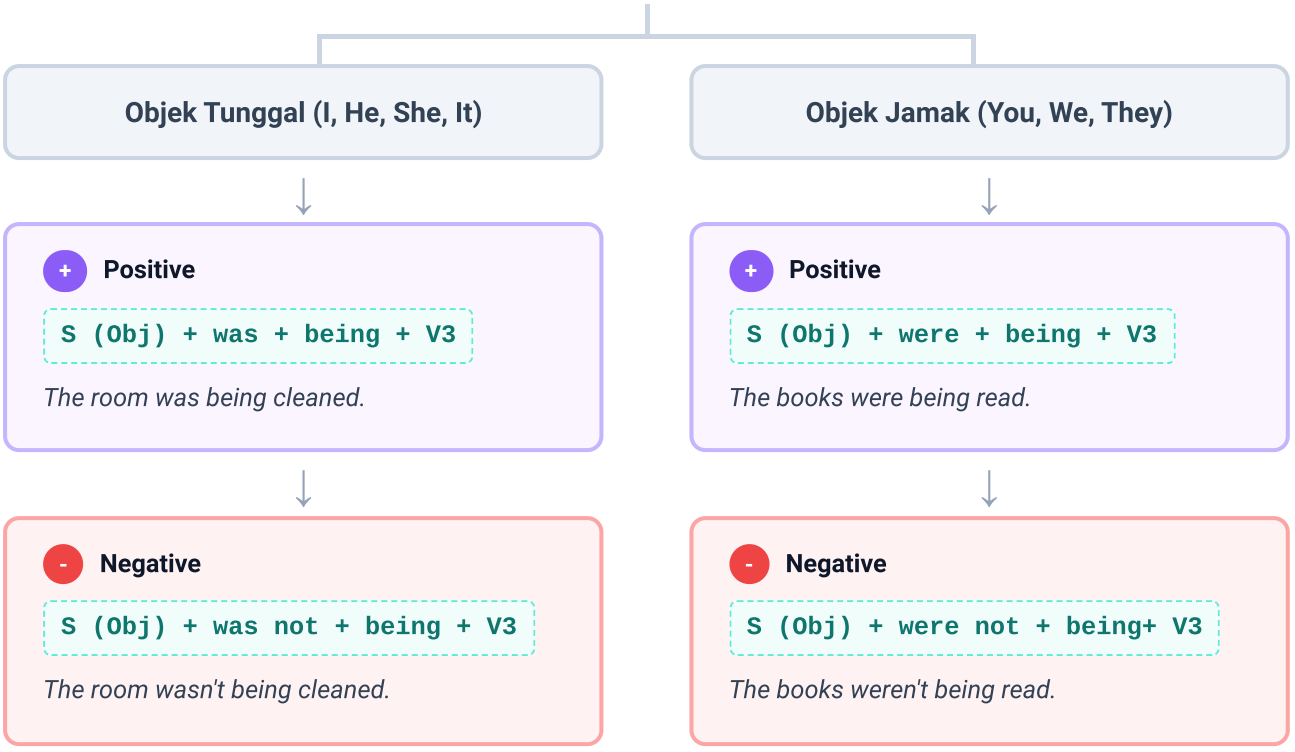

Kenapa pakai "being"?

Biasanya To Be (was/were) tidak boleh di-ing-kan. Namun, untuk mengekspresikan perilaku/tingkah laku sementara di masa lalu, kita wajib menggunakan was/were + being + Adjective (Kata Sifat).

Bandingkan:
- "He was rude" (Simple Past) = Dia memang orang yang kasar (sifat asli).
- "He was being rude" (Past Continuous) = Dia sedang bertingkah kasar saat itu (padahal biasanya tidak).

3. PASSIVE VOICE

Fokus pada Objek yang SEDANG Dikenai Aksi di Masa Lalu

4. ALUR WH-QUESTION (Alur Pertanyaan Terbuka)

Rangkai pertanyaan panjang dengan 4 gerbong berurutan ini:

Contoh Verbal: [What] → [were] → [you] → [doing] at 8 p.m.?

Contoh Nominal: [Why] → [was] → [he] → [being] so noisy?
